

Join Us To Reach New Heights with the Yorkshire Three Peaks Challenge.

Dear Parents and Guardians,

On Saturday, June 22nd, we're putting together a group of parents to tackle the iconic Yorkshire Three Peaks: Pen-y-Ghent, Whernside and Ingleborough. Will you join us?

Why the Yorkshire Three Peaks?

This 24-mile hike offers adventure, camaraderie, and breathtaking views—all while supporting our school. The goal is to complete all three peaks in under 12 hours. It's not just a physical challenge; it's an opportunity to connect with nature, build community spirit, and create lasting memories.

Supporting Our School

Funds raised through this "Reach New Heights" event will enrich our children's outdoor learning experience and provide them with additional resources to enjoy learning outside, such as nature exploration kits, larger equipment to support gross motor skills and planters.

Getting prepared

You will be responsible for your own health and safety and we'll work together to ensure that all hikers are well-prepared, with tips on training, equipment, and gathering sponsorship. We'll organise some training walks to do together before the big day. Our goal is to make this challenge a safe, inclusive, and enjoyable experience for everyone.

How you can get involved:

1. Register to hike: Join our walking team of parents to walk on 22nd June. Your friends and family are all welcome to hike with you on the day, too. The more, the merrier.
2. Volunteer: Not keen on hiking? There are plenty of ways to contribute, from logistical support to cheering on hikers.
3. Sponsorship: Sponsor a hiker or donate directly to support our cause.

Interested and want to know more?

Join us for a Q+A (and a drink) on Wednesday, 24th April, at 7 pm at the Penny Bun (the former Askwith Arms), where we'll dive into the details, answer your questions, and share how you can start preparing for this incredible journey. In the meantime, you can also access more information on the challenge here -
