

Understanding the World: The Natural World (Science)

Physical processes: Seasons

- weather can change every day
- forces and materials
 - elastic, water, natural materials such as twigs, leaves and stones

Physical processes

- materials can change
 - cooking
 - melting

Plants

- plant life cycle
 - planting seeds
 - caring for plants
 - plants grow
 - plants change through the year
 - plants decay
- show respect for the environment

Understanding the World: People, Culture and Communities (Geography)

My Local Area

- explore natural materials
 - feel and describe items - twigs, leaves, stones, cones, feathers
 - find and draw patterns
 - create collages
- properties of materials
 - vocabulary such as rough, smooth and spiky are used to describe materials
- show respect for the natural environment
 - picking up litter
 - walking on footpaths
 - showing respect for animals and insects

Understanding the World: People, Culture and Communities (RE)

Expressing: What makes places special?

- people and places are different
 - differences between people is a positive thing
 - differences between places is a positive thing
 - different people have different special places

Easter

- Easter
 - has a special story

Understanding the World: History

Past and present

- memories
 - own life story
 - describe photos
 - retell others' memories