

English: Reading

Connected Knowledge

- Question:
 - know the answer when questioned about the text to show their understanding of what has been read
- Visualise:
 - the key vocabulary (words and phrases) from the text that describe a character and/or setting of a story
- Clarify:
 - what opinion and fact means
 - the vocabulary needed to give an opinion about something from the text e.g. a character
 - the structural and presentational features that the author has used to discuss how items of information are related
- Predict and infer:
 - the key vocabulary (words and phrases) from the text to justify how a character is feeling
 - know what has been read so far to make a prediction
- Summarise:
 - the key vocabulary (words and phrases) and pictures that tell us about the main idea of the text
 - the simple recurring literary language and sequence of events in order to retell stories

New Knowledge

1. Question:
 - know the answer when questioned about the text to show their understanding of what has been read
2. Visualise:
 - know the key vocabulary (words, phrases, language features) that the author has used and the intended impact on the reader
3. Clarify:
 - know that facts and opinions within texts

- know the vocabulary needed to give an opinion about something from the text e.g. a character
- know the structural and presentational features that the author has used and the intended impact on the reader

4. Predict and infer:

- know the key vocabulary (words and phrases) from the text to justify (characters' feelings, thoughts, motives from their actions)
- know what has been read so far to make a prediction

5. Summarise:

- know the key vocabulary (words and phrases) from the text that tell us the main idea so it can be summarised from more than one paragraph
- know the themes and conventions across a wide range of books including fairy stories, myths and legends

Reading and comprehension skills can be applied across a range of genres