

Maths

Time: Explain how to tell and draw the time?
How can I apply this to time problems? How can I show that I understand what clockwise and anticlockwise means?

Geometry: Explain the difference between 2D and 3D shapes. How can I name and describe their properties?

Science

Materials and magnets: How can I explain differences and similarities between everyday materials? How can I show I understand how materials can change shape? How can I show I understand that some materials are magnetic?

English

Fiction: How can I use a story mountain to plan, write and re-draft a simple story?

Non Fiction: How can I inform people about our school trip? How do I organise a thank you letter?

Poetry: How can I play with language and rhyme to create poetry with a theme?

Reading: How can I use clues and my knowledge to answer inference questions about the text?

Handwriting: How can I make sure my capital letters are clear when I join my writing?

Spelling: How can I edit my work to ensure correct spellings?

Art and design

Painting: How can I show that I can use different brushes for different purposes?

Printing: Show that I can make and use my own printing blocks?

Collage: How can I use layering and collage to recreate a landscape?

Computing

Collecting data: How can I use technology to collect data and display it on charts?

Summer Term

D&T

Tools: How can I make a vehicle move?

RE

Belonging: How are priests' clothes symbolic?

Islamic symbols: How can I explain what some Islamic symbols mean?

History

Transport through time: What is a timeline? How can I find out about how transport has changed through time? How was Australia discovered?

Geography

Australia: What are the physical and human features of Australia? How is it different compared to where we live?

Philosophy

Resilience and resourcefulness: Why is it important to learn from mistakes? How can I be a more independent learner?

Music

Signs and symbols in music: How can I continue a musical arrangement by improvising, using an instrument? Can I make a link between visual shapes and pitch?

Class 3

PE

Athletics and games: Can I explain what makes a good team player?

PSHE

Keeping myself safe: How can I keep myself safe at home and at school?

Me and my future: How can I be responsible with money in the future?