

Maths

How can I apply my understanding of time to real life situations?

How can I demonstrate that I can add and subtract effectively?

Why is it important to understand multiplication and subtraction?

How can I use my understanding of measurement in my everyday life?

How can I apply my mathematical understanding to solve problems mentally?

Science

How can I compare and group materials?

How can I observe and explain how materials change state?

Why is it important to use my research skills to find out about how chemists create new materials?

How do humans develop to old age?

French - J'ai habite a...

How can I demonstrate that I can talk about where I live?

How can I extend this understanding to talk about a different area?

Philosophy

Why should we not give up? (Resilience)

When we find out, what do we ask next?

Music

Why is it important to improvise melodically when using instruments?

English

Fiction: How can I develop cohesion within my writing?

Why is it important to plan and redraft when I write?

Non fiction: How can I write persuasively?

Poetry: How can I develop my understanding of classic poetry?

Vocabulary, Spelling, Grammar and Punctuation

Reading activities

Handwriting

History : Chronology

How can I demonstrate my understanding of the chronology of British monarchs?

Geography

How can I my developing Geographical understanding to locate, explain and compare volcanoes around the world?

Spring Term 2016

Class 4L (Years 4 & 5)

D&T

Why is it important to work safely and hygienically to join and combine ingredients effectively?

Art and design - Portraits:

Why is expression important?

How can I use my developing understanding of portraits to create collages?

Why is it important to use my sketch book effectively?

RE

Judaism: How can I explore commitment shown by others and relate this to my own experience?

How can I show an understanding that symbols may be interpreted in different ways between religions?

PSHCE

Why is it important to develop my understanding of global citizenship?

Why should I adopt a healthy and safe lifestyle?

Computing - Toy design

How can I prototype an interactive toy?

PE

How can I create a visually appealing gymnastic routine that links a series of movements?