Weekly Newsletter No. 4

28th September 2017

Dear Parent / Carer,

We have received an updated code of conduct for the use of the school buses from NYCC. The majority of the content is about the expected standards of behaviour from the children whilst on the buses, which we know the children from Askwith are aware of and demonstrate. However, it is made clear that it is the parent / carer's responsibility to stay with their child until the bus arrives in the morning and be there to meet them when they get off the bus. We will be reminding the bus companies that they should not let a child off the bus unless there is someone to meet them and to otherwise bring them back to school. Thank you for your support in this matter. A full copy of the code of conduct is available on the NYCC website and in the school office.

This week we celebrated European Day of Languages with a variety of songs and activities in French, Spanish and Italian.

All parents are invited to a discussion session entitled 'Supporting your child in English' This will be held at 3.45pm and repeated again at 7pm on Thursday 5th October in Miss Thwaite's classroom. For those parents who wish to attend the 3.45pm session please note that there will be no charge for after school club for the duration of the meeting.

Worksharing this term will be held on Monday 9th October (9.30-11am) and on Tuesday 10th October (2-3pm) for years 1 to 6. This is an opportunity for you to come into school for up to 30mins so your child can show you their work. Please sign in at the office on arrival. Thank you.

The PTA Halloween disco is taking place on Friday 13th October, spare ticket forms are available in the office, please return by Wednesday 11th October. Pumpkins may be brought into school on Friday 13th for judging in the morning and will be transported to the disco by the PTA in the afternoon.

Please find attached dates for your diary for next half term including the Early Year's Nativity performance for years R, 1 and 2 and the KS2 Pantomime for years 3,4,5 and 6.

A reminder that completed order forms and payment for the Tempest Photographs should be returned to school by Tuesday 3rd October.

Yours faithfully, Mrs E Nayler
